Public Private Mix (PPM) Cluster Coordinator

The Leprosy Mission Nigeria

Background

TLMN is a Sub-recipient in the Global Fund GC7 project which is due to commence on 1 January 2024 and therefore looking to fill the below vacant positions in the Global Fund GC7 project:

Job Title: Public Private Mix (PPM) Cluster Coordinator

Location: Jigawa (1), Kebbi (1), Niger (1), Zamfara (1), Sokoto (1)

Job Summary:

Roles & Responsibilities

- Manage the day-to-day activities of the project at the state level
- Support the State Technical Officer TB& HIV
- Provide regular technical support and supervision to field personnel, including private health sector care providers, Linkage Coordinators, sample movers and other related staff providing services along TB service delivery cascade;
- Support facilities to ensure effective linkages for TB clinical cascade as well as integration with allied interventions including HIV/AIDS prevention, care and treatment;
- Assist in the data collection, collation, validation and reporting according to TLMN GF M&E plan; Submit monthly/quarterly state progress reports to the country office
- Assist organize and implement meetings with State technical Officers, SMCs, LCs and SOs

Requirements/Qualifications: The candidate to be considered must have:

- Possession of a Bachelor's degree in public health, Sciences, Social Sciences or any other relevant related fields
- A master's degree in public health, Project management or related field will be an added advantage
- Experience in the implementation of Global Fund (GF) grant is an added advantage
- 3 years of working experience in Tuberculosis, HIV Control
- Knowledgeable in TB/HIV and Understanding various technicalities in implementing TB/HIV-related grants in both Private facilities and the community.
- Proven work experience in a health-based NGO or similar role
- Familiar with and resident in the project state.
- Experience in working with local communities including conducting health awareness in community settings
- Understand teamwork and possess good interpersonal skills.
- Good writing and communication skills
- Working knowledge of Microsoft packages at least MS Excel, MS Word and PowerPoint, ODK, and MATS App.

Desired Competencies:

Public Private Mix (PPM) Cluster Coordinator

- Good communication and writing skills.
- Good team player
- Good knowledge of the State applied for
- Ability to use Microsoft Office suite packages.
- Result driven.
- Strong analytical /problem-solving skills.
- Good planning/organizational skills
- Ability to follow instructions and procedures.
- Ability to take initiative.
- Ability to work unsupervised.
- High sense of confidentiality, initiative and good judgment.
- Knowledge of health systems issues in Nigeria.
- Demonstrable track record of achievements in public health programs.

How to Apply:

Interested and qualified candidates should submit their "Cover Letter and CV in single file, saved with your name and job title" in Word format to: tlmnigeriarecruitment@gmail.com

Application Closing Date

Friday, January 5th, 2024.